Italy Fearful of Revolution if She Joins

Rome, Aug. 5.—The Italian army is nobilized. Details are suppressed by the censor, but it is certain that both the army and many are now on a com-plete war footing. Germany continues her efforts to get the government to reonsider its declaration of neutrality, but so far these appeals have been in vain. It is admitted that for the government to go to war now to help Germany and Austria, with the country aflame with most bitter and anti-Austrian feeling, would mean an immediate Washington, Aug. 5.—The American revolution in which the loyalty of the impossible test.
